

Calling for Expression of Interest
(Kerala Police Notice)

Kerala Community Policing known as Janamaithri Suraksha Project is running in the State for the last 6 years and around 250 Police Stations have been covered under the scheme. The scheme on which envisages a number of activities involving community safety.

02. Inorder to objectively evaluate the effect of the scheme, we are intending to engage competent organisation or agency to evaluate the impact of the scheme. The Police department will share the domain knowledge about the scheme and it will be the responsibility of the selected organisation or agency to devise methodology for evaluation. These methodologies should also be discussed with the representatives of the Police department before finalisation. It is intended the impact study will be completed by the December 31, 2014.

03. Interested agencies or firms are requested to send (1) the details of their organisation (2) their capabilities and (3) experiences etc to Additional Director General of Police, APBn (email ID – adgpapbn.pol@kerala.gov.in) both in hard and soft copy form on or before 15.09.2014 to take further necessary action in this regard.

Loknath Behera IPS

Additional Director General of Police
(Modernisation)

19.08.2014